

RESOLVED BIBLE CHURCH

ROLES OF MEN & WOMEN

We, the elders of Resolved Bible Church, believe that the Scriptures address every area of our lives, including the roles of men and women. Although God has made these issues clear in His Word, our culture has rejected the biblical view, causing much confusion.

Our purpose is to understand God's design and resist the pressure to conform to the standards and structures of our culture. What follows is a summary of the biblical principles relating to this issue and the practice of Resolved Bible Church.

RESOLVED BIBLE CHURCH

OUR BIBLICAL FOUNDATION

God's Creation Design

We believe that God created both man and woman in His image with equal value yet with distinct roles. God created both man and woman in His own image, equal before Him as persons and in the value of their divinely assigned functions. Yet they are distinct in their manhood and womanhood and in their roles. This distinction reflects His purpose and is an essential part of the creation. His design is for them to complement and support each other in harmony, fulfilling His will for human companionship, reproduction, social organization, and joy. (Genesis 1:27-28; 2:18; 5:1-2; 9:6; Matthew 19:4-6; 1 Corinthians 11:11-12; Colossians 3:10; James 3:9)

Impact of the Fall

We believe that the fall introduced distortions in the relationships and roles of men and women. The decision of Adam and Eve to disobey God caused men and women to be separated from God and, in so doing, often to misunderstand, reject, and corrupt distinctions between the roles of men and women. Misunderstandings of headship and submission have resulted in a struggle, often leading to harmful extremes. Redemption in Christ gives believers the power to resolve this struggle through loving leadership and willing submission. (Genesis 3:16-19; Ephesians 5:21-33)

Leadership

We believe that God has a specific design for leadership in the local church. Leadership in the local church is the God-given role of serving, guiding, and directing the church and its members. Where appropriate, both men and women may occupy positions of leadership as they serve the church. The Scriptures teach that ultimate responsibility for leadership in the church should be conferred upon qualified men, selected as elders, under the headship of Christ. The Scriptures teach believers to respond and submit to this leadership with a willing heart, desiring harmony in the church. (Acts 14:23; 1 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-9; 2:3; 1 Peter 5:5)

The Role of Women in the Church

From the very beginning, women fulfilled a vital role in the Christian church (Acts 1:12–14; 9:36–42; 16:13–15; 17:1–4, 10–12; 18:1–2, 18, 24–28; Rom. 16; 1 Cor. 16:19; 2 Tim. 1:5; 4:19), but not one of leadership. The apostles were all men; the chief missionary activity was done by men; the writing of the New Testament was the work of men; and leadership in the churches was entrusted to men.

Although the Apostle Paul respected women and worked side by side with them for the furtherance of the gospel (Rom. 16; Phil. 4:3), he appointed no female elders or pastors. In his letters, he urged that men were to be the leaders in the church and that women were not to teach or exercise authority over men (1 Tim. 2:12). Therefore, although women are spiritual equals with men and the ministry of women is essential to the body of Christ, women are excluded from leadership over men in the church.

Men and women stand as equals before God, both bearing the image of God Himself. However, without making one inferior to the other, God calls upon both men and women to fulfill the roles and responsibilities specifically designed for them, a pattern that can be seen even between the Father and the incarnate Son (1 Cor. 11:3). In fulfilling the divinely given roles taught in the New Testament, women are able to realize their full potential because they are following the plan of their own Creator and Designer. Only in obedience to Him and His design will women truly be able, in the fullest sense, to give glory to God.

Submission

We believe that each person — man, woman, child, single or married — is responsible to yield (submit) to legitimate authorities.

The essence of submission is an attitude of respect toward legitimate authority in our lives. For the believer, it is expressed first by choosing God's will over our own, then similarly yielding our will to other authorities that He has placed in our lives. The submission to God's authority is absolute. The submission to human authorities should only be to the extent that they do not require disobedience to the revealed will of God. (Acts 4:19-20; 5:29; Romans 13:1-7; Titus 3:1; 1 Peter 2:13-17).

Both men and women are responsible to God in fulfilling their roles. That responsibility includes the submission of the congregation to the elders in the church, of wives to their husbands in marriage, and of children to their parents in the home. The Scriptures encourage single adults to serve the Lord with unhindered devotion. Persons in authority are to be humble, accountable to God for the loving care of those submitting to their leadership. Persons submitting to those in authority are to do so "as unto the Lord," appropriately responsive to the direction they have received. (1 Corinthians 7:32-35; Ephesians 5:21-6:9; Philippians 2:5-11; Titus 2:2-8; Hebrews 13:17; 1 Peter 5:1-5).

We interpret Ephesians 5:21 to be an introduction to the relationships described in Ephesians 5:22-6:3 and not an affirmation of "mutual submission." Submission requires the willing obedience of one under authority to another in the role of the head.

THE ROLES OF MEN AND WOMEN IN MEETINGS OF THE CHURCH

The Scriptures teach that in meetings of the church all things must be done in a proper and orderly manner. (1 Corinthians 14:40) We consider meetings of the church to be any gathering that is under the auspices of Resolved Bible Church.

Teaching the Scriptures

We believe the authority to instruct others is governed by the elders. Those who teach at Resolved Bible Church do so under the authority of the elders. Men are to teach the Scriptures in meetings of the church where men are included in the intended audience. Men or women may teach the Scriptures in meetings of the church where women, teenagers, and/or children are the intended audience. At all times, men and women are to have a spirit of submission toward the leader of the meeting. (1 Timothy 2:12; 3:1-7; 1 Peter 5:5)

Participation

We believe that all believers in Christ share in the privilege and responsibility to participate in the life of the church. At the invitation of the leader or teacher, men and women may give testimonies, read the Scriptures, and pray in meetings of the church, adult Bible fellowships, Bible studies, and small groups that are under the auspices of Resolved Bible Church. Men and women may also share comments and insights concerning the Scriptures during discussion in any of these groups. (Acts 18:24-26; 1 Corinthians 14; Ephesians 5:18-21; Colossians 3:14-17)

Assembling for Worship

We believe that our attitude in worship should bring glory to God. As men and women gather for worship, they should evidence a spirit of humility, reverence, and sincerity of heart; emphasize godliness and good works; and in everything bring glory to God. In their attire, both men and women should reflect the dignity of God's creation design, and demonstrate modesty and discretion (Colossians 3:17; 1 Timothy 2:8-10)

Bible Studies and Sponsored Groups

We believe in the orderly participation of men and women in Bible studies and sponsored groups of the church. Bible studies and sponsored groups under the auspices of Resolved Bible Church are to be taught by individuals approved by the elders. Men are to teach any Bible study in which men are included in the intended audience; women may teach subjects other than the Scriptures in such groups. Men or women may teach the Scriptures to groups consisting of women, teenagers, and children. Teachers are to follow these principles in selecting instructional materials (books, audio tapes, and video tapes) that serve as the main source of interpretation for presentation.

Ministry and Service

We believe that the elders should select men and women to provide direction for the ministries of the church. The Scriptures teach that the elders are responsible for overseeing ministries in the local church. Elders may select qualified men and women to serve in ministry for the building up of the body of Christ through the exercising of their spiritual gifts. Elders may appoint biblically qualified men and women to serve the church. (Acts 20:28; Ephesians 4:16; 1 Timothy 3:8-13; Hebrews 13:17; 1 Peter 4:10-11).

Ministry Councils

We believe that the elders lead more effectively when they seek counsel from both men and women. Ministry councils are led by elders and may include other church members. Decisions of councils will be the responsibility of the elders on the councils under the leadership of the council chairman.

Discipleship

We believe that both men and women should disciple others. The Scriptures teach that discipleship plays a critical role in the spiritual development of believers and the church. An effective biblical model for making disciples encourages the older men to train younger men, and older women are to train younger women. (Matthew 28:19-20; 2 Timothy 2:2; Titus 2:3-5)

Counseling

We believe that both men and women may serve as counselors. The counseling ministry of Resolved Bible Church is a lay ministry and provides compassion and care to those who are seeking assistance in their lives. Normally, same-gender counseling will be practiced. Under the supervision of the Pastor qualified men and/or women counselors may counsel couples and families.

Missionaries

We believe that men and women in missionary service should follow the mandates of the Scriptures as churches are established. Missionaries receiving support from Resolved Bible Church shall be guided by the Scriptures concerning the roles of men and women in the church as they respond to diverse cultural and ethnic differences. Women in missionary service may find themselves in situations requiring them to assume teaching and leadership roles normally reserved for men. This typically occurs where no qualified men are available. Once a church has been established and qualified men become available, they shall assume leadership roles.

RESOLVED BIBLE CHURCH
1417 Sixth Street Norco, CA 92860
(951) 547-2917
www.resolvedbc.org

APPROVED BY THE ELDERS OF RESOLVED BIBLE CHURCH – July 25, 2015